

GCSE Spanish

Key Features of the Course:

The content of the course is extremely varied and aims to develop the students' listening and reading comprehension, fluency in both spoken and written work and competence in the more advanced structures. The course is divided into modules of work, dealing with such topics as:

Theme 1: Identity and culture.

Theme 2: Local, national, international and global areas of interest

Theme 3: Current and future study and employment

There is a gradual structured development of students' linguistic skills to help them in the transition from KS3. Students take assessments based on a variety of topics throughout the GCSE, testing their linguistic competence in all four skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. There is then a final cross topic exam at the end of their studies for each skill.

What type of student is this suitable for?

Students wishing to study a modern language at GCSE should have achieved a good level at KS3. Students should be able to by the end of KS3 manipulate verbs accurately into different tenses, understand longer texts both in reading and listening and confidence when speaking the target language is also required. You will need to be willing to learn vocabulary and be able to plan and write extended pieces of maximum 90/150 words.

What could this course lead on to?

The knowledge of a modern language is a highly valued and important qualification for a number of career opportunities. Students with an ability to communicate confidently and effectively in a modern language will be able to use their skills in the commercial, financial, tourist and legal sectors, in addition to translation work and teaching, not only in this country but also abroad.
